DRINKS LIST

COCKTAILS

BRAMBLE £8.95	AMARETTO SOUR £8.95
Looking to get a little fruity? Famed bartender Dick Bradsell invented this classic at Fred's club in London's Soho. Fruity, chilled, sweet.	Forget overly sweet, pre-made sour mix: The best way to highlight amaretto's nutty flavor is with this frothy classic. This recipe for the 1970s throwback is a balanced combination of sweet, sour, nutty and boozy.
FRENCH MARTINI £7.95	WHISKY SOUR £8.95
The cocktail was produced during the '80s – '90s cocktail Renaissance. It's a modern classic cocktail. Raspberry and pineapple laced with vodka. Easy drinking, fruity, chilled, aromatic.	It ain't fancy, but that's a big part of its appeal. The Whiskey Sour is one classic cocktail that won't make you sour.
EL PRESIDENTE £8.95	TEQUILA SOUR £8.95
El presidente is refreshing and full of flavour. A Cuban cocktail during prohibition. Aged rum and Antica formula vermouth makes this drink premium. Spirit forward, full, rich, bittersweet.	A solid shake is required for this refreshing mexican-inspired cocktail but it's worth every move.
MOSCOW MULE £8.95	SOFT DRINKS
A spirit plus ginger beer is called a "Mule" - this drink is perfect for vodka lovers . The spice kick from the ginger beer and garnish with cucumber makes it so easy to drink. Fresh, spicy, boozy!	COCA-COLA (200ML) £2.00
PALOMA £8.45	DIET COCO-COLA (200ML) £2.00
